Description

The Maximus is a huge 1/8 brushless 4X4 RTR monster truck that is ready to bash right out of the box. The Maximus features oil-filled and threaded aluminum shocks, and aluminum shock towers. The suspension is extremely adjustable, durable, and can be precision tuned for any terrain. It's all mounted to a metal chassis with a double deck aluminum top deck providing a super stiff platform to improve both handling and reliability on the big jumps. It's the total package and ready to bash with a 2.4GHz radio, brushless motor and ESC combo, and metal-gear steering servo. Simply add your favorite batteries and reach blistering speeds of over 50mph with the stock gearing! Take control of the Maximus and bash hard. Durable, adjustable, and full of features! The DHK Maximus is the right choice for a 1/8 EP monster truck.
