Description CEN's new Reaper American Force Edition features a Hobbywing 150A ESC, 1450kV Brushless motor, Savox 12Kg-cm steering servo, and a new adjustable LiPo battery tray that makes installing dual 3S packs simple and convenient. The American Force Edition comes with officially-licensed Fury All-terrain tires mounted on Legend SS8 wheels with an additional +10mm offset (compared to the standard Colossus XT) for a wider, more aggressive stance. Best of all, over 95% of the Colossus XT parts are compatible with the American Force Edition.
